Guest Speaker; Jesse Cancelmo Underwater Photographer, Author

An accomplished diver and underwater photographer, Cancelmo made his first scuba dive in 1969 on a coral reef in Bermuda. Since that plunge, he has stoked his passion by diving around the globe from World War II wrecks off the New Jersey coast to the coral reefs of Papua New Guinea. Cancelmo's photography and articles have appeared in leading wildlife, diving, and news publications including Dive Training magazine, BBC Wildlife, National Geographic, USA Today, Houston Chronicle and Newsweek.

He is the author of four books covering various diving locations far and wide. Jesse is trimix certified and has completed full cave certification. His logbook includes open circuit dives on the Andrea Doria, the USS Monitor and the Brine Seep near the East Flower Garden Banks reef cap.
